FALL CELEBRATION

Our second annual Fall Celebration is rapidly approaching. The date is Saturday, October 22 from 10 a.m. till 2 p.m. People are already working very hard to insure that it will be a great success.

Our goal in this event is to serve our community in Jesus' name. We want to show that we care about people. Our hope is that ultimately some of those we contact will be led to the Lord.

One of the things we do on that day is provide Coats for Our Community. Not everyone has a warm coat for the cold winter ahead. We are still in need of L & XL coats for ladies, boys, and girls. If you can help with coats in those sizes, please see Melissa McBroom for further information.

I want to thank you for your response in brining items for our food panty. Another thing we do in our Fall Celebration is provide some boxes of food to those who need them. Your generosity will allow us to do that again this year.

Some of the other activities for this busy day include the following:

- ✓ Games for Children
- ✓ A Hot Dog Lunch
- ✓ Seymour VFD Truck for Fire Safety
- ✓ Sevier Co. Deputy Sheriff for Drug Awareness
- ✓ Mark Cawood and Mayberry Sheriff's Car
- ✓ Bible Literature and Bible Correspondence Courses
- ✓ Drawing for Free Bible

If you aren't plugged in somewhere yet, please see Jeff Whitaker. He is the deacon In charge of this important event.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Dawson Brown became ill last Sunday but was much better in a day or two . . . Jeff Whitaker's medical procedure last Monday showed good results, and we are thankful for answered prayers. . . . Steve Hopper was unable to attend services last weekend. A visit to the ER on Saturday revealed that he had vertigo and the doctor put him on bed rest for a while. . . . Norma Jean Miller has not been able to be at services recently. We certainly miss her sweet smile. . . . Kim Wheeler has been in California visiting her only grandchild. The pictures she has posted are beautiful.

The Central Church of Christ, where Erin attends while at school, was able to help some 250 people, and with the money donated, nearly 200 Bibles were purchased and distributed. We give God the glory and thank Him for the opportunity to help in this endeavor.
