REGRETS

I heard the following poem by C.R. Gibson a long time ago, and I think of it often.

“I have wept in the night
At my shortness of sight
That to others' needs made me blind,
But I never have yet
Had a twinge of regret
For being a little too kind.”

As I survey my life, I have many regrets. There are things I have said and done that I wish I had not. There are also things I have left unsaid and undone, which I likewise regret.

How about you? Do you have regrets? I'm sure you do. We can focus on our regrets, if we wish, and make ourselves and those about us miserable. Or, we can think of some things we have never regretted. Consider this list.

I have never regretted . . .

- Showing kindness to an elderly person.
- Helping a young person find his/her way.
- Taking time to show consideration for those who have meant so much to my life (parents, teachers, friends, etc.).
- Not saying everything I was thinking, because I knew it would hurt and not help.
- Sharing the gospel with someone who does not know Jesus.
- Remembering God in all things.

FAMILY MATTERS

PRAYER LIST—Marie Caprani, Jamie's mother, fell recently and injured her knee. Prayers are requested for a speedy recovery. . . . Barbara Russell's great grandson, Canaan Ridge Glen, was taken to Vanderbilt last Tuesday with interstitial lung disease. He is unable to breathe on his own at this time. Prayers, please. . . . Please keep Bill Morrison in your prayers, as he continues to battle his cancer. It has been a long, difficult journey for him and his family. . . . Lesia Potter responded to the invitation last Wednesday evening to request prayers for her husband's (Butch) health and that she might have strength and patience in caring for him.

FOR THE RECORD—Sunday Bible Study, 47; Morning Worship, 65; Evening Worship, 41; Contribution, $2,024; Wednesday Bible Study, 51.

PANTRY ITEMS FOR THIS WEEK—Cans of Green Beans and Carrots. Thank you for bringing the designated items in each week.

FALL CELEBRATION—Our Fall Celebration is scheduled for Saturday, October 7, from 10 a.m. till 2 p.m. There will be an important meeting at 5 p.m. today for all who are involved in this special endeavor.

EXPLANATION ABOUT THIS MORNING—A number of our people are away this morning. The Curtis, McBroom and Wheeler families are with our young people for the Youth Retreat. Tom Miller is conducting a Gospel Meeting in Pursley, WV through Thursday of this week. We are thankful for those who are leading in the services here this morning. Some of them are doing double duty, and appreciate it. The Youth Retreat group will be back this evening for the song service.
